Halloween Bingo: how to play

For 2 to 8 players with this free set. Every card is different.

WHAT TO PRINT

- One bingo card per player (cards 1 to 8 in this free set).
- For the caller: the caller sheet and the calling cards. Cut the calling cards out and put them in a hat, bowl or bucket.
- Print on A4 or US Letter; choose "fit to page".

HOW TO PLAY

- The caller draws a calling card and reads it out ("Black cat!"), then ticks it off on the caller sheet.
- Players cross off or cover that picture if it is on their card. The middle square is free.
- First to shout "BOO!" (or "Bingo!") with a winning pattern wins. The caller checks the card against the caller sheet.

GAMES TO PLAY

- One line: any row, column or diagonal of five.
- Four corners: the four corner squares.
- Pumpkin patch: the middle 3 × 3 block.
- Full house: every square on the card. Play this one last.

GOOD TO KNOW

- Counters: sweets, buttons or chocolate coins. Or put cards in plastic sleeves and play again with a dry-wipe pen.
- Pictures are Noto Color Emoji (SIL Open Font License). Words under each picture help early readers.
